

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

April 1, 2018

“Christ is Risen – Truly, He is Risen”

Jesus is alive, he lives! On this glorious day, I remind you that sin and death have no power over you. I pray that the Easter Alleluia be your song of praise. Rejoice. Tell others that the stone was rolled away and Jesus has been raised from the dead.

God bless you, Fr. Matthew

An Easter message from Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

“Through Christ’s passion, his burial in the tomb and his glorious resurrection, we come to realize the enormity of the Lord’s sacrifice for us. We may feel unworthy of his love who paid so high a price for our salvation. Let us not be afraid. Let’s allow ourselves to be taken - even seized - with Easter joy. As we proclaim on Easter Sunday, ‘Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.’

“In the Gospel of John, Chapter 10, Jesus says the shepherd calls his own sheep by name, ‘I am the Good Shepherd and I know mine.’ In Chapter 20, how much fear and doubt must have gripped Mary of Magdala as she stood by the tomb? There, it was Jesus who rescued Mary from her fears and darkness by calling her name. Listen carefully. Mary thought she had discovered the risen Lord, but it was the risen Lord who discovered her. Jesus calls out to each of us by name today as he did the very first Easter Sunday. His promise fulfilled. His word brings life, ‘I am the Good Shepherd and I know mine.’

“Jesus waits for you and me, embracing us in our moments of greatest need and desire. Welcome the love of God into your life. Share it with those around you, especially the most vulnerable of our sisters and brothers. In this way, we proclaim with Mary, ‘I have seen the Lord.’ Sing joyfully, ‘the Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal.’ Happy Easter!”

TIPS FOR TITHING

Our gift to God is a sacrifice. To give in a sacrificial way means that our giving comes from the heart. Jesus sacrificed his entire life for us and His gift was His very life. We are to return a portion of our time, talent, and treasure so the work of Jesus can continue on earth.

What return can I make to the Lord for all the blessings He has poured out on me?

Easter Lilies ...

Easter lilies did not exist in North America until about 100 years ago. The white trumpet lily, which blooms naturally in springtime, was introduced here from Bermuda by Mrs. Thomas P. Sargent. The popular name "Easter lilies" comes from the fact that they bloom around Eastertime. They have become associated with Easter as much as poinsettias are with Christmas. In early Christian art the lily is a symbol of purity because of its delicacy of form and its whiteness. For the same reason it serves well as a symbol of resurrection.
